

1340 – 605 Robson Street, Vancouver
British Columbia V6B 5J3 Canada
tel: (604) 688-2337 fax: (604) 688-4586

FUNDING NOTICE

2011 SMALL PROJECTS INITIATIVE

The Law Foundation has established a total Small Projects budget of up to $150,000 for small, one-time projects for 2011. To be eligible for funding, a project must fall within one or more of the five program objectives of the Law Foundation: legal aid; legal education; legal research; law reform; and law libraries.

The Law Foundation encourages applications from organizations that are interested in implementing projects of a smaller scale.

The Law Foundation encourages applicants and projects that reflect the diversity of British Columbia. The Law Foundation's working definition of diversity is: Diversity includes age, different abilities, socio-economic level, education, ethnicity, language, family, gender, marital/relationship status, race, religion, work experience, geographic size and location, and sexual orientation.

All applications that fall within the program objectives of the Law Foundation will be considered.

The maximum amount available for each time-limited project is $15,000.

To be considered at the 2011 March Board meeting, a small project application must be received by the Law Foundation no later than 3:00 pm on Friday, October 15, 2010.

The Small Projects application guidelines and form may be obtained:

- from our website, www.lawfoundationbc.org (Microsoft Word or PDF format)
- by e-mailing us at lfbc@tlfbc.org
- by calling us at (604) 688-2337
- by faxing us at (604) 688-4586
- by writing us at the Law Foundation of BC, 1340 – 605 Robson Street, Vancouver, BC V6B 5J3

Please contact Law Foundation staff at (604) 688-2337 to discuss your project prior to submitting your application.